

Pregnancy Loss and Infant Death Alliance

Advancement Manager

Pregnancy Loss and Infant Death Alliance, PLIDA, has a unified international presence and as an organization serves as leaders in perinatal and neonatal bereavement care. This is accomplished through providing education, advocacy, and networking to our membership base of clinicians, health care providers, researchers, academics, and parent advocates. Our mission to provide the highest quality of consistent evidence-based care for all families who experience the death of a baby at any gestation. PLIDA's goal is to be the central place for clinicians, care giving professionals, parent advocates, members of the media and policy makers to share information on the professional care of families experiencing a perinatal loss. PLIDA also organizes the biennial International Perinatal Bereavement Conference a three-day event providing education to ensure all families receive consistent best practice care.

The Advancement Manager collaborates with PLIDA's Board of Directors, Committee Chairs, and PLIDA staff. This position leads the initiative for obtaining and securing grant and financial opportunities, overseeing the proposal process, and identifying corporate support opportunities that align with PLIDA's mission. The PLIDA Advancement Manager is a member of PLIDA paid staff and reports to the Executive Director and/or PLIDA President.
